

Draped Armchair

The Draped Chair is drawn by a fabric softly resting on a bucket seat with a wooden base rises up with graceful folds to delineate the armrests and the back, rendered unusual by a light asymmetry, like petals moved by a delicate puff of wind. A very comfortable yet very light in shape upholstered chair is born, which through the inspiration of its drapery acquires a sense of movement in the material. It is a project which suggests style and communicates the soul of the Front duo: sober, elegant but also unpredictable, never renouncing the small charms that make people talk about it, and thus unquestionably feminine.
