

RED SQUARE

A collection of transparent hand-blown glass vases with powerful decorative features. The simple lines of the inferior band highlight the precious workmanship of the superior band, which recalls the luxurious aesthetics of byzantine architecture. As inferred by the name, the collection is inspired by the ancient domes of the cathedral of St. Basil in the red square, Moscow. Produced in three sizes, these vases are the ideal choice for small bouquets. placed in sequence, they describe a refined and poetical landscape.
